Business Meeting:

Financials:

Treasurer Lorna presented the Financials. Charitable is healthy with all the funds from Ribfest 2018 transferred. General is a bit of a loss due to a carryover from 2017-18 but we are on target to meet Budget at this 50% point through the year.

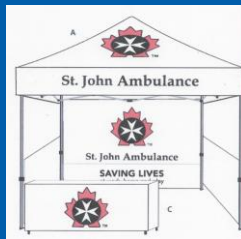

Motion to accept the Report, Moved by Steve, Seconded by Bill E., Passed.

Vote :

St. John Ambulance First Aid Tent:

The motion was to cover the cost of a new tent for them, complete with graphic acknowledgement of RCO as the sponsor.

Moved by: Don Seconded by: Richard Passed.

Membership Survey:

Membership Chair Taunya has extended the deadline in order to get responses from as many members as possible. Everyone received the Survey by email, so if you did not attend tonight, please fill it out and get it to Taunya asap.

Directors Reports:

Each Director reports Monthly to the Board with the status of all items under their direction. The Board has also agreed that these reports would be given to the Club on a Quarterly Basis to keep everyone up to date on Board and Club activities.

Blood Donor Clinic Adoption: Mon. Feb 25th

This is a new effort for RCO and it was well outlined by Lisa and Sheri following their meeting with President Dave and the Canadian Blood Service. Our focus is on signing up 10 eligible donors from our Club Members, their Families and Friends to show up at 4:00pm on the afternoon of the Clinic.

There will be a signup sheet available. Lisa and Sheri will circulate an email to all Members giving all the details and in a format that can be forwarded to Family and Friends as well as other Groups such as Service Clubs, to generate donors.

Executive for 2019-2020:

PE Richard announced that the final Director position on his Board has been filled with PP Fred Murphy accepting the position. Congratulations Fred; welcome back to the Board!

Club News:

Little Taste of Scotland

Tues., Jan. 29th, 2019 6:00pm

Reserve the date and plan to attend, this excellent community event at the Mill Creek Pub.

Piper, Haggis, Dinner, and most of all, some great single malts to learn about and taste.

Margaret has the tickets now; contact her!

Hospital Pavilion Update:

The Lights are on!

There is now night lighting installed and operating. The lights are operated by motion sensor, so only go on upon entering the Pavilion. Nice!

Our Website is New - Check it Out!: OrangevilleRotary.ca

Web Master Mike has been hard at work refreshing our website - it's worth a visit -(look for the great video for Little Taste of Scotland!!! Many thanks Mike for all you do for RCO!

Camp Enterprise Student Wins Award

Aiden Richards was one of our students two years ago and has now gone on to Queen's University. He is the recipient of the Luke Santi Award for Student Achievement.

Industry Lunch 2019

11:30am - 2:00pm Thurs. Feb. 21, 2019

This annual event is co-sponsored by RCO with the Dufferin Board of Trade and the Greater Dufferin Homebuilders.

We will arrange for a table for 8 and will sell individual seats to members. The exact cost of the event is not known yet, but last year's event was $75.

A sign up sheet will be prepared for next meeting - but you can reserve a seat now by emailing Don.
