Paul Harris Night

Bob Burnside, once again, gave his excellent background on just what a Paul Harris Fellow is all about. He told us that "yes" is the most meaningful word we encounter in life, and said that it is a acquired skill that Rotarians use frequently and they say 'yes' to get great things done!

Tonight we brought four excellent folks into the Paul Harris Fellowship family.

- Scott Hughes, introduced by Fred Murphy, joined RCO some 13 years ago and was our President in 2017-2018.
- Steve Cavell, introduced by Susan Zbinden, joined Rotary 14 years ago and was our President in 2011-2012
- Charles McCabe, introduced by Knut Holmsen, was a member of Toronto Sunrise RC before moving here and joining RCO.
- Lynn Sinclair-Smith, introduced by Scott Hughes is recognized as the guiding force behind the beautiful Friendship Gardens at our Hospital.

PEOPLE OF ACTION

Yours in Rotary,
Don Voisey,
Editor for today

Rotarian of the Year

For the first time ever, the Rotarian of the year was awarded, most deservedly to our Corporate Member, Devonleigh Homes.

Devonleigh Designees Amanda, Sheri & Stan, in particular, were fully involved right from the start in our projects, in our Pods and out in full force whenever volunteer opportunities with Rotary arose.

An excellent choice by President Dave!

Congratulations Devonleigh!

A New Member

Returning to RCO after a short absence, we are pleased to welcome back to RCO membership, Amie Zukowski!

Amie has also returned to her previous post as Volunteer Coordinator for Ribfest. As Amie mentioned - there are still a few key shifts in dire need of volunteers, so if you, or a family member, or a fiend can contribute a few hours Ribfest weekend, Amie will welcome that!

Dave's Year:

President Dave reminded us of our new Rotarians this year - Charilyn Wright, Amy McKerracher, Lynda Moore, and tonight, Amie Zukowski. Dave also wished Sally Slumskie all the best as she retires north and thanked her for all her input to the success of our club over the years. Dave also recognized the passing of Rotarian Bill James, and Rotary spouse, Huda Scott.
